Berlin, November 19, N. S.

LEtters from Poland of the 9th Inſtant bring Advice, that the Diet of Warſaw broke up on the 7th without Succeſs; and that the ſame Day King Auguſtus, with the Conſent of the Grand Council, compoſed of the three Orders of the Republick, had diſpoſed of the vacant Employments Civil and Military. The Review of the Ten Thouſand Pruſſians, who are by this Time arrived at Magdebourg, Halberſtadt, &c. is fixed for the 24th Inſtant, after which his Pruſſian Majeſty will return to his Reſidence here, where he propoſes to ſpend the whole Winter.

Hague, Nov. 25, N. S. The Aſſembly of the States of Holland remains fixed for Wedneſday next, when they will very probably confirm their Reſolution for a Lottery of Three Millions of Florins by Way of Annuities. The Place of Droſſard of Breda, vacant by the Death of M. Catwyck, is not yet diſpoſed of. The States General, who had reſolved by a Majority of Votes to grant for the future a Subſiſtance to their Sea Officers who are not actually in Service, having reſumed the ſaid Propoſition, it was entirely rejected by another Majority.

Dublin, November 8.

This Day his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the humble Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons of this Kingdom, was communicated to that Houſe by Mr. Secretary Cary, from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and is as follows.

GEORGE, R.

HIS Majeſty received with great Satisfaction the dutiful and loyal Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons, and their Profeſſions of Zeal and Affection for his Perſon and Government, which his Majeſty does not doubt, but they will make good, by granting ſuch Supplies as may effectually provide for the Debt of the Nation, and the Support of the Government with Honour, and by applying themſelves to whatever may contribute to the Happineſs and Proſperity of Ireland; and they may be aſſured of his Majeſty's Favour and Protection, and of his Majeſty's doing all that depends on him, for promoting the Succeſs of their Endeavours for ſo deſirable an End.

The Linnen and Hempen Manufactures are of ſo great Importance to the Welfare and Proſperity of Ireland, that his Majeſty ſees with great Pleaſure, that the Houſe of Commons are determined to give their utmoſt Attention to the improving and extending theſe valuable Branches of Trade.

For which moſt gracious Anſwer, the Houſe voted an Addreſs of Thanks to his Majeſty.

South Sea Houſe, London, Nov. 14, 1735.

The Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give Notice, that on Wedneſday the 10th *of December next, at Eleven in the Forenoon, there will be expoſed to Sale, at their Houſe in Threadneedle-ſtreet, a Freehold Eſtate, conſiſting of Four Houſes in Fleet-ſtreet, A Leaſehold Eſtate in the Pariſh of South-Nibe, in Oxfordſhire.
